This supplementary edition of twenty Christmas songs completes the choral arrangements in the New Christmas Praise series. Numbers 1-95 are published in a separate volume. Instrumental arrangements for all tunes included in the series (No's 1-115), are available in the form of instrumental booklets.

Several of the songs in this edition have been arranged on a single vocal line, whilst others follow a traditional four-part harmony. For guitarists, we have included chords for each song, although not always as an exact replica of the published harmony.

Where a written introduction has not been included in the arrangement, we have indicated a suggested introduction by the use of a bracket underneath the corresponding phrase. This should provide a helpful service in establishing tempi, style and pitch.
